In re:

Illinois Courts Response to

COVID-19 Emergency/

Impact on Trials

Whereas, this court previously ordered that all cases scheduled for trial through May 15, 2020 shall be continued to a date certain by the judge assigned to the case; and

Whereas, the Supreme Court granted Chief Judges of each circuit the authority to further extend the timeframe for trial continuances; and Face-coverings will be required in public indoor spaces, such as stores. This new requirement applies to all individuals over the age of two who are able to medically tolerate a face-covering or a mask.*

Whereas, as Chief Judge of the 22nd Judicial Circuit, the Court finds that an extension of the Court's Administrative Orders, No. 2020-07 and No. 2020-08 are necessary to protect the general public, court staff, judges and other judicial partners from the risks associated with the COVID-19 emergency; and

Therefore, It Is Hereby Ordered that all cases scheduled for trial through May 29, 2020 in the 22nd Circuit, McHenry County, Illinois shall be continued to a date certain by the judge assigned to said case. Cases in the civil and family divisions shall utilize remote
